

Folding of ballots.

space for the insertion of number. Before distribution, said ballots shall be so folded in marked creases that no part of the marks or printing thereon, excepting that upon the back and outside, and that upon the detachable stub or coupon, shall be visible and so that the folded ballot shall be of uniform width and length, and of proper width to be deposited in the ballot boxes. All ballots, when printed, shall be folded as above described, and fastened together in convenient numbers in packages, book or books, so that each ballot may be detached and removed separately. The said Board of Supervisors of Elections shall, four days at least prior to the day of any election in said city, cause to be conspicuously and securely posted in one or more public places in each voting precinct of said city accurate sample copies of the ballots to be used in such precinct at the then approaching election; such sample copies shall be printed on light card board or heavy sized paper, and one of them at least shall be placed upon the exterior of each building in which the polls will be held, so that the same can be readily seen and examined by persons passing on the street or road.

Sample ballots
to be posted.

Voter to receive one official ballot.

270CCC. At every election each qualified voter shall be entitled to receive one official ballot. The person applying therefor to the judge of election holding the ballots shall give his name and residence, and the said judge shall repeat the same in a loud and distinct voice, and if such name be found upon the register by the judge having the custody thereof, he shall repeat the said name, and the voter shall be allowed to enter the space inclosed by the guard rail; and the judge holding the ballots, having first written in ink the voter's name and number upon the coupon attached to one of them, shall deliver said ballot to the voter, after having likewise written in ink his own name or initials upon the back thereof; and the two clerks of election shall, at the same time, enter the number and names of the voter upon their poll books. Upon receipt of his ballot, the voter shall forthwith, and without leaving the inclosed space, retire alone to one of the booths or compartments and prepare his ballot by marking, with an indelible pencil, after the name of the person or persons for whom he intends to vote, and to the right thereof in the blank space provided therefor, a cross (for example, X); and in case of a question submitted to a vote of the people by marking likewise in the appropriate space a cross against the answer which he desires to give. This provision shall be directory, as far as the instrument for marking the ballot is concerned. Any voter who desires to vote

Manner of voting.